The Aerospace Retirees' Club offers you an opportunity to share your email address with other members. Those who register will receive a list of other participants, their city & state of residence, and their email address. You must be a paid-up member to register. Check your mailing label for your current e-mail & membership status. A blank means either that we have no email address on record, or have an invalid address. "Yes" or "No" shows your current election regarding participation in the sharing program. (Note: The option to register but not participate is no longer offered, but existing members will be retained in our records as they have requested.) To register your email address, send an email message to arc92957@yahoo.com with the subject, "register". State your full name in the message body. This will enter you in the sharing program. You will receive a reply message with the then-current list and processing instructions. Please be patient, as this program is administered by a volunteer retiree.

Your association will exist only so long as there are volunteers to run it. If you are able to become involved as an officer, in planning events or other roles, please check here _____.
A board member will contact you.
